

The Children's Crime Survey for England and Wales has been made for young people.

There are questions about any crimes you've experienced, what activities you do online, if you've ever been bullied, and your attitudes towards safety.

Charities and policymakers use information from the Children's Crime Survey for England and Wales to support and protect young people.

CHILDREN'S CRIME SURVEY FOR ENGLAND AND WALES

Help make the country a safer place for people like you by completing the Children's Crime Survey for England and Wales!

How does the risk rating work?

You will be interviewed and asked to fill in a survey. After the interview, we will send a letter to you and your parent/guardian(s) about whether your online activity is low, medium or high risk. This won't reveal your individual answers.

Will anyone see my answers?

The information you give us will be private and no one else will be able to see the answers you give.

What have children told us before?

Three out of four children who've been bullied online experienced some of it during school time

Nine out of ten children said they go online everyday

How will my answers to the survey be used?

By the Government to develop policies that protect children

By charities to campaign to protect children online

By schools to tackle bullying

Do I have to take part?

You don't have to take part but we hope that you will because your thoughts and experiences are really important.

Everyone can take part regardless of their experiences and you don't have to answer anything that you do not want to.

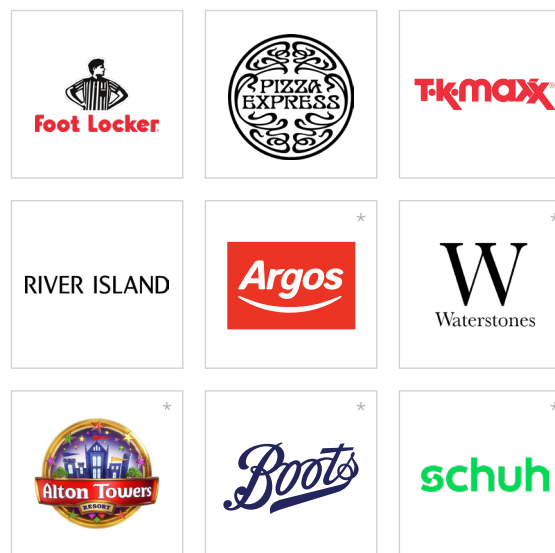

If you do take part you will receive a £5 voucher as a thank you.

How will I receive the voucher? What shops can I spend it at?

You will receive your voucher by post and your voucher can be spent at the following shops:
